TO START SOON ON 124 HOUSES

Reginald W. Geare Announces Plan for Dwellings in Trinidad Subdivision.

ESTIMATED AT $248,000

Space Fronting Oates, Owen, and Penn Streets Will Be Utilized. Each to Cost $2,000.

Ground will be broken within the month for the 124 homes which are to be erected in one operation in Trinidad subdivision northeast at an estimated cost of $245,000. It was announced yesterday by Reginald W. Geare, architect, builder and agent for the proposed dwellings, 'that the plans are well under way and that everything is in readiness to start the work.

All the available space fronting Oates, Owen and Penn streets, as well as Virginia avenue, it is expected, is to be filled by rows of two-story and attichomes. The buildings are to be trim but moderate-priced and are to accommodate largely the families of railroad men.

Each home will cost approximately some

Plan Is Spanish.

The homes are to be built in an attractive Spanish design, of gray tapestry brick; window and door sills are to be trimmed with granite introductions. A backyard and garden plots will be partly hidden by the characteristic Spanish gable treatment with stucco insets, rising above the attic story.

The two floors will contain six rooms, the first floor to have reception room, parlor, entrance hall and kitchen. The living rooms will have open fireplaces. The second story will contain three bedrooms, Thomas R. Riley will own the rooms. Thomas R. Riley will own the property and the homes are expected to be completed within six months.

Panama, Feb. 9.—John Burke, manager of the Commissary Department of the Panama Canal, today was suspended by Col. George W. Goethals, following a committee's report into charges that Burke had accepted illegal commissions from contractors.

Burke was confident the charges would fall flat.

Secretary of War Garrison yesterday said be had no information as to whether Cql. Goethals had taken any action or not, but stated that the colonel was at full liberty to do so, as the entire case had been turned over to him for administrative action.

The papers in the case, together with IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE DISTRICT had been turned over to man and traitive action.

The papers in the case, together with evidence gathered in the United States and Europe, have been turned over to the United States District Attorney's of Columbia, as a Court of Bankruptey. In the man of the union who are out to the work only five days a week, that the members of Vancouver, B.
